Invitation to BRICS Business Forum 2022

(To representatives of the business community)

June 7th, 2022

The BRICS Business Forum 2022 will be held in Beijing in an hybrid format on June 22nd. The organizing committee is honored to invite your esteemed organization to this forum.

As a major supporting event to the BRICS Summit, the BRICS Business Forum is an important platform for the business community of the five countries to explore cooperation and seek common development. With the theme of “Deepening the BRICS Business Partnership to Create Jointly a Better Future for Global Development”, this year’s forum will focus on such hot topics as promoting world economic recovery, accelerating green transition, embracing the digital economy, expanding cooperation in health, and enhancing the resilience of industrial and supply chains. The BRICS leaders will be invited to attend the opening ceremony and deliver speeches virtually. The business leaders from BRICS countries and the invited countries to the High-level Dialogue on Global Development will attend and speak at the panel discussions.

Given your organization's presence in the relevant field, the organizing committee cordially invite you to the forum. Please find attached the draft agenda and the registration form of the forum.

We look forward to your attendance at this year's BRICS Business Forum.

Best regards,

The Organizing Committee of

BRICS Business Forum 2022
