Chief Lending Officer at the Development Finance Corporation

With over twenty years of banking experience, I began as a Bank Examiner at the Central Bank in regulatory banking, followed by serving as a Bank Manager at the Belize Bank in commercial banking. Currently, I am the Chief Lending Officer at the Development Finance Corporation. My expertise includes a deep knowledge of banking and corporate regulations, risk management strategies, core operations examination, credit facilities analysis, and delinquency management. As a Retail Banking Manager at The Belize Bank Limited, overseeing three branches in Belize City, I effectively managed sales, operations, and customer service while providing coaching and mentorship. I am dedicated to leadership, knowledge sharing, and staff learning and development.
